CHARLES CARLISLE PLUMLEY ) MOTION FOR A CONTINUANCE
                              )
                              )

Now comes the defendant, CHARLES CARLISLE PLUMLEY, by and through his appointed counsel, Mark C. McLawhorn, Assistant Federal Public Defender, who respectfully requests that the Court continue this case to the next scheduled term. Assistant United States Attorney Casey Rankin Smith consents to this motion to continue.

Mr. Plumley was arraigned on February 15, 2022. Defense counsel was appointed on February 15, 2022, after an arraignment hearing. Defense counsel filed motions for discovery on February 16, 2022. The defendant is in custody at Lexington County Detention Center.

Defense counsel needs additional time to review the discovery, conduct a thorough investigation, and review the discovery with the defendant. Additionally, a continuance would allow the parties more time to negotiate a resolution to the case.

Defense counsel represents to the Court that he has discussed this continuance with defendant and defendant consents to the continuance. Defendant acknowledges that he understands the time occasioned by this delay shall be excluded from consideration under 18 U.S.C. § 3161, et seq., The Speedy Trial Act.

Respectfully submitted,

I CONSENT:

COREY F. ELLIS
UNITED STATES ATTORNEY
